A PRESIDENCY REVEALED

The acclaimed series examines one of the most complex and enduring former U.S. Presidents.

In this feature-length special, THE HISTORY CHANNEL® takes a fresh look at one of America's most controversial leaders more than thirty years after his infamous resignation. Drawing on previously unseen footage, recently released audio tapes, and interviews with those close to the former president, NIXON: A PRESIDENCY REVEALED sheds new light on the man who brought both progress and shame to the presidential office. Nixon's accomplishments in office were both significant and enduring—but ultimately overshadowed by his secrecy, lies, and gross abuse of power. Directed by Peabody Award®-winner David C. Taylor, this searching profile re-evaluates commonly held beliefs about the once promising, but ultimately marred, political career of the 37th U.S. President.

- The most comprehensive examination of the Nixon administration ever filmed, using newly released White House recordings and telephone calls, home movies shot by Nixon staffers, and the diary recordings of Chief of Staff H.R. Haldeman.
- Includes in-depth interviews with Nixon staff including Alexander Haig and Henry Kissinger, and Washington Post editor Ben Bradlee.
- NIXON is the third installment in the acclaimed "A Presidency Revealed" series, which has been watched by over 3 million viewers.
