

PLEASURE —FOR— SALE

A raunchy and revealing look into the topsy-turvy business of selling sex

The Sundance Channel's enticing six-part series, a stunningly realistic and honest portrayal of the day-to-day life in "The Best Little Whorehouse in the West," satisfies the social voyeur in all of us. Directors Joe and Harry Gantz (Taxicab Confessions) focus a sympathetic eye on the fascinating and often troubled stories of the women working in the oldest profession. Unlike anything you've ever seen before, PLEASURE FOR SALE is also strangely familiar territory, exploring the themes of love and loss, frustration and fury amidst the nitty-gritty grind of daily brothel life.

- A Sundance Channel original production that premiered in February 2008.
- From Emmy® Award-winning filmmakers Joe and Harry Gantz (Taxicab Confessions).
- Enthusiastic, critical praise including raves from The New York Times and Los Angeles Times.

"The Chicken Ranch is a business where the internal competition is intense; it is a commune without hemp, a dorm where Tolstoy is never read."

— The New York Times
