THE REAL NATIONAL TREASURE

An inside look at the Library of Congress

- Take an exclusive, behind-the-scenes tour of the America's oldest Federal cultural institution, where upward of 745 miles of shelves hold close to 145 million items, many of them invaluable treasures, such as:
 - George Washington's personal copy of the Constitution
 - Historic drafts of the Declaration of Independence
 - Galileo's first images of the moon.
- The Library of Congress is the largest library in the world, and attracts more than 1.7 million visitors each year.
- The DVD includes a fascinating bonus feature showcasing the Library's most recent innovations, including its state-of-the art digital collections.
- A major sales opportunity at the LOC gift shop, as well as gift shops at other historical museums and cultural institutions.
