The Path to Victory: From Guadalcanal to Okinawa

Though most people associate D-Day with the massive invasion of Normandy on June 6, 1944, few are aware that "D-Day" is actually military code for any amphibious operation. The ultimate guide to the epic campaign orchestrated by American forces, THE HISTORY CHANNEL® PRESENTS: D-DAYS IN THE PACIFIC includes: "Death at Tideline," an examination of dozens of the more than one-hundred D-Days waged in the Pacific. "Closing the Jaws" focuses on America's rapidly improving tactics, while "The Final Graveyard" brings the war to a close as Japan's defenses are finally pierced.

- From Oscar®-winning motion pictures to best-selling books, World War II continues to captivate viewers young and old.
- Includes two A&E BIOGRAPHY® programs on Admiral Chester Nimitz and General Douglas MacArthur.
- Features unforgettable eyewitness accounts and vivid, never-before-seen footage.
- Essential programming for libraries, collectors, and history buffs, from THE HISTORY CHANNEL®.
