Fearless, debonair, and always with an eye toward justice, Simon Templar, aka The Saint, took the world by storm in 1962. Now the dazzling black-and-white debut season about this modern-day Robin Hood is available on DVD.

Constantly attuned to those in distress, especially when they're wearing a dress, THE SAINT circled the globe in his trademark white Volvo, deploying lethal charm as his weapon of choice. Based on the best-selling novel Meet the Tiger by Leslie Charteris, Roger Moore's portrayal of this glamorous mystery man with a heart of gold created a television legend. With impeccable taste for the finer things in life, Templar dashed through one heart pulsing adventure after another, forever chased by Scotland Yard's Inspector Teal.

Action-packed and dependably sexy, this 3-disc set features all 12 black-and-white episodes from the debut season of THE SAINT.

- Stars screen and television legend Roger Moore (James Bond) and a virtual Who's Who of sixties ingénues.
- Packed with wit, tightly-plotted action sequences, and mod jet-set style.
- Currently Airing on BBC America.
- THE SAINT has generated millions of dollars in sales for home video.
