

131ST WESTMINSTER KENNEL CLUB DOG SHOW

SPECIAL COLLECTOR'S EDITION

Go behind the scenes of the most prestigious dog show in America

Filmed on location at Madison Square Garden in New York, the 131ST WESTMINSTER KENNEL CLUB DOG SHOW captures the assembly of over 2,500 AKC Champions of Record, who collectively represent 165 breeds and varieties. This special collector's edition features four hours of judging and follows the canine contestants through tests of breeding, training, and showmanship. Anticipation heightens as the field narrows to seven select champions and eventually gives way to the dramatic climax in which one dog is awarded the world's most coveted canine prize: Best in Show.

With hours of on-site footage, expert commentaries, and the world's finest dogs, the 131ST WESTMINSTER KENNEL CLUB DOG SHOW is a must-have for any dog lover or dog-show enthusiast.

- The Westminster Kennel Club Dog Show is the most prestigious dog show in the country and the second-longest continuously held sporting event of all time (behind the Kentucky Derby).
- On the first night of competition, the USA network ranked #1 in its time slot, attracting 2.6 million viewers.
- There are approximately 74 million dogs owned in the U.S., with over 43 million households owning at least one dog.*
- Features expert commentaries and analysis by host Lester Holt, respected dog aficionado David Frei and up-close reports from Debbye Turner.
