From director Gary Winick (Tadpole, 13 Going on 30) comes the provocative romantic comedy SAM THE MAN, a compellingly believable, wryly funny tale about the complexities of dating and the contradictions of human nature.

Fisher Stevens (Uptown Girls, Hackers) stars as Sam Manning, a once-successful Manhattan writer who now flounders through life, compulsively wasting his creative energies by cheating on his photographer fiancée. As Sam's day-to-day choices become more irrational, his infidelities start to take control, but only a humbling dose of self-reflection can possibly steer him back towards a path of healthy living.

An inventively crafted and smartly observed film-fest favorite, SAM THE MAN features an all-star cast, including Annabella Sciorra, Maria Bello, Rob Morrow, Ron Rifkin, Griffin Dunne, Luis Guzmán, and George Plimpton.

- From Award-Winning Writer/Director/Producer Gary Winick (13 Going on 30, Tadpole, Pieces of April, Personal Velocity).
- Featuring an All-Star cast including Annabella Sciorra (Jungle Fever, The Hand that Rocks the Cradle), Fisher Stevens (Short Circuit), Luis Guzmán (Traffic), Ron Rifkin (Alias), Rob Morrow (Northern Exposure), Maria Bello (The Cooler, ER), and John Slattery (Mona Lisa Smile, Ed).
- IFC Premiere: February 8, 2004.
- One of the first feature films to be shot entirely on DV, SAM THE MAN was a standout feature at the traveling Resfest Digital Film Festival in 2000, playing in San Francisco, Seattle, London, Montreal, Chicago, New York, Los Angeles, Korea, and Japan.
