

THE HISTORY CHANNEL® PRESENTS

THE DARK AGES

Join THE HISTORY CHANNEL® on an unforgettable voyage through one of the most desolate periods in human history

In the second century A.D., the Roman Empire was at the height of its military power and had spread its magnificent civilization to the far corners of Europe. But in 432 A.D., Rome was sacked by the Vandals, and a new age of chaos and destruction began. Meet the villains who planned the demise of European society, including Genseric the Vandal and King Forkbeard, and such beacons of light as Charlemagne and Theodora, who fought for peace and enlightenment.

THE DARK AGES profiles those who battled to shape the future of civilization: from the villains who planned the demise of European society, from Genseric the Vandal, King Forkbeard and other dark figures; to Charlemagne, Theodora, and other beacons of light who fought for peace and enlightenment.

- Features a “who’s who” of the Dark Ages highlighting both light and dark figures including Genseric the Vandal, King Forkbeard, Charlemagne, and Theodora.
- A Marquee title from THE HISTORY CHANNEL®, supported by a national multi-million dollar media and advertising campaign
- Premieres on THE HISTORY CHANNEL® on March 4, 2007.
- Bonuses include a feature-length documentary, The Plague, and a History in the Making featurette, The Dark Ages.
