

SYNOPSIS: In "Reviving Ophelia," sisters Marie (Jane Kaczmarek) and Le Ann (Kim Dickens) have always leaned on one another through life's challenges, but discover they need each other more than ever as they navigate the complexities of understanding and raising their teen daughters. Marie's 17-year-old Elizabeth (Rebecca Williams) has the picture-perfect life, with a seemingly equally wonderful boyfriend. Meanwhile, Le Ann is raising 16-year-old Kelli (Carleigh Beverly) as a single parent and finds it difficult to relate to the pressures her daughter is facing with boys, friends and school. When Kelli starts to suspect Elizabeth may be abused by her boyfriend (Nick Thurston), no one will believe her. But when Elizabeth lands in the hospital, Kelli's surprising insights help Marie give Elizabeth the courage to leave her violent relationship.
