SYNOPSIS PARANORMAL COPS follows a group of larger-than-life cops who walk one beat during the day as real-life Chicago police officers and another at night when they apply their forensic and investigative expertise to paranormal casework. Responding to the pleas of ordinary people who are victimized by distressing and inexplicable activities in their homes and workplaces, these cops bring their no-nonsense approach to hunting ghosts and real-life police skills to separate the fact from fiction... and often happen upon results much scarier than the paranormal.
