REBEL WITHOUT A PAUSE

PREORDER
March 29, 2005

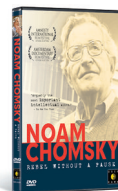

RELEASE
April 26, 2005

Called "the most important intellectual alive" by The New York Times and "a rebel without a pause" by rock-star Bono, Noam Chomsky is one of the greatest minds of the 20th Century and the world's leading voice of dissent.

In a post 9-11 world, Noam Chomsky speaks openly about the U.S. War on Terrorism, Media Manipulation, and social activism in honest and forthright terms, providing a critical voice that many audiences feel is missing in the world today. Featuring candid interviews with his wife, Carol Chomsky, as well as activists, fans, and critics, NOAM CHOMSKY: REBEL WITHOUT A PAUSE is a timely, must-see film that offers an alternative voice and explores the truths and myths about one of the most important intellectuals of our time.

- A global phenomenon, Noam Chomsky is the most widely read American voice on foreign policy in the world today.
- Noam Chomsky's books have been published in 26 countries and translated into 23 foreign languages. His most recent book 9-11, spent 7 weeks on The New York Times Extended Bestseller List.
- Noam Chomsky is regularly promoted at rock concerts by superstar rock bands such as U2.
- Includes candid interviews with his wife, Carol Chomsky, other intellectuals, critics, activists, and fans.
