“FASTEST is Brilliant.” – Eurosport

May 15, 2012 – New York, New York – With 18 races spread across 13 countries in four continents, the MotoGP is the premiere motorcycle racing World Championship. Each race is attended by over 100,000 spectators and is seen on television by more than 337 million households in over 200 countries.

In FASTEST, award-winning filmmaker Mark Neale (Charge, Faster) offers unprecedented access and never-before-seen footage of the stars of MotoGP, while distilling the heart-pumping, adrenaline rush the young riders face on the track. The film is the sequel to Neale’s critically acclaimed documentary, Faster, and features interviews with the riders, their families, friends, and fans as they share a fascination and excitement for motorcycle racing.

Narrated by Golden-Globe nominated actor and motorcycle enthusiast Ewan McGregor (Trainspotting, Beginners), the feature-length documentary charts MotoGP world champion Valentino Rossi's quest for his 10th world title as he returns to the track from a horrific leg-shattering crash at the 2010 Italian Grand Prix.
