

CROSS THE TIME BARRIER TO ADVENTURE WITH
THE CLASSIC '70s BRITISH SCI-FI SERIES

TIMESLIP

THE COMPLETE SERIES

"Intelligent, sophisticated, and exciting... an excellent series which effortlessly matched even the very best of adult science fiction series produced at that time."

—Television Heaven.co.uk

The pioneer in 70's time travel series crosses the time barrier to DVD!

Have you ever had the feeling you've been here before? Or you know what will happen next? Perhaps you're experiencing TIMESLIP, where past and future are just a blink of an eye away.

A "timeslip" is exactly what fifteen-year-olds Simon Randall and Liz Skinner stumble through while on vacation. In search of a missing girl, the intrepid teens pass through an invisible time barrier that takes them back to World War II, 1990s Antarctica, England as a tropical jungle, and a secret research institute in 1965. Decades ahead of its time when it premiered in 1970, TIMESLIP tackled topics that have become today's headlines like cloning, global warming, and longevity drugs. Ambitious, superbly acted, and thought provoking, this first-time DVD edition features all 26 original episodes including the only surviving color episode—never-before-seen in America.

- All 26 episodes from the clever 70's sci-fi action series on DVD for the first time.
- Includes the only surviving color episode and highly classified behind the scenes documentary.
- For fans of British TV and classic sci-fi series like Dr. Who and Quantum Leap.
- Strong performances by Dennis Quilley (Murder on the Orient Express), Spencer Banks (Pennies From Heaven), and Cheryl Burfield (A Place in the Sun).
- Has a cult following that is stronger than ever—with an official website and a spirited message board.
