Winner of an Independent Spirit Award and named Best Documentary at the San Francisco International Film Festival, LOST BOYS OF SUDAN follows two teenage Sudanese refugees on an extraordinary journey from Africa to America, offering a gripping and sobering peek into the myth of the American Dream.

Sidestepping conventional voice-over narration in favor of real-time, close-quarters poignancy, LOST BOYS OF SUDAN focuses on Santino and Peter, members of the Dinka tribe, during their first life-altering year in the United States resettlement program. Safe at last from physical danger—but a world away from home—the boys must grapple with extreme cultural differences as they come to understand both the abundance and alienation of contemporary American life.

- 2004 Theatrical Release with playdates in over 50 major markets.
- Premiering on PBS's P.O.V. series on September 28, 2004. P.O.V. is America's most-watched independent documentary showcase and has an average viewership of 2.5 million per broadcast.
- Winner of a 2004 Independent Spirit Award (Truer Than Fiction Award) and Best Documentary at the San Francisco International Film Festival (Golden Gate Award).
- A film with tremendous critical acclaim across the board, including raves from The New York Times, Entertainment Weekly, and Los Angeles Times, among others.
