NEW RELEASE: HISTORY™

HOLY GRAIL IN AMERICA

The location of the most famous religious relic in history might be closer than we think

- An exciting, feature-length documentary that puts the much-studied subject of the Holy Grail in a fascinating new light – what if the fabled relic was located in our own country?
- Stories of the Holy Grail and its guardian, the Knights Templar, have experienced a phenomenal surge in popularity in recent years with Dan Brown's films and books (including the just-released The Lost Symbol).
- Premiered to nearly 2 million viewers.
- Marketing campaign will include tagged spots on HISTORY (in over 95 million homes) plus outreach to sites/blogs that specialize in Grail folklore and Templar history, as well as in-store tie-ins to Dan Brown's books and films.

SYNOPSIS In 1898, a Minnesota farmer clearing trees from his field uprooted a large stone covered with mysterious runes that tell a story of land acquisition and murder. The stone allegedly dates back to 1362. Did the Knights Templar discover America 100 years before Columbus? Has the Holy Grail been in America all along?
