NEW RELEASE: HISTORY

Art not Final

SYNOPSIS From George Washington to Barack Obama, THE PRESIDENTS shares the stories of the distinctive individuals who have guided America throughout its history—their powerful personalities, weaknesses, and major achievements. Based on the book To the Best of My Ability, edited by Pulitzer Prize-winner James McPherson, THE PRESIDENTS features insight from journalists, scholars and politicians including Walter Kronkite, Wesley Clark, Bob Dole, and former President Jimmy Carter, as well as rare and unseen photographs and footage. Viewed within the changing contexts of each administration, the Presidency has never seemed more compelling and human.

THE PRESIDENTS

Updated from the original bestseller, THE PRESIDENTS provides a rare, inside look at the lives and legacies of all leaders of the United States.

- The bestselling series returns, just in time for President's Day and the year-long coverage for the 2012 Presidential election, now 50% slimmer and with a value bonus DVD.
- Based on the Pulitzer prize winning book, To the Best of My Ability, THE PRESIDENTS is the most comprehensive documentary series ever filmed about the presidency, chronicling all 44 Commanders in Chief from George Washington to Barack Obama.
- Features commentary from scholars and experts including James McPherson, Walter Cronkite, Douglas Brinkley, President Jimmy Carter, Bob Dole, James Baker, and Wesley Clark.
- Also included is a tour of national historic sites and rare presidential artifacts, plus the feature-length bonus documentary, All the Presidents' Wives.
