NEDS

The Outsiders meets Trainspotting

Synopsis:

Award-winning director/writer Peter Mullan (The Magdalene Sisters) sets the stage in 1970s Glasgow, where a bright boy named John sees very few options in his life. With no one willing to give him a chance, he descends into a life of crime.

- Directed by acclaimed director/writer Peter Mullan (The Magdalene Sisters), who's also an actor known for roles in Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows and Trainspotting.
- With a worldwide theatrical box office of $2 million, NEDS won the top prize awarded by a panel of top UK critics at the Evening Standard British Film Awards, beating out The King's Speech.
- Newcomer Conor McCarron won Best Young Actor (Non Pro), at the Sans Sebastian Film Festival.
- An intense portrayal of street life reminiscent of films such as The Outsiders and Green Street Hooligans, NEDS also echoes the smash-hit Trainspotting in its gritty portrayal of the Scottish underworld and use of Scottish street slang.
- An Official Selection of the 2011 Tribeca Film Festival.
- Online AMEX media campaign (23MM impressions) to support DVD release.
