

SECRETS OF THE CIVIL WAR

A must-have for Civil War buffs, HISTORY™ presents the weapons, heroes, and battles they didn't tell you about in school

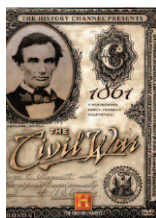

Even today, almost 150 years after Lee's surrender at Appomattox Court House, unexpected secrets and little known stories continue to emerge from Civil War history. In this outstanding 4-DVD set from HISTORY™, archival letters, original diary entries, sophisticated cinematic reenactments, and interviews with the country's most renowned historians bring these buried events vividly to life.

Each of these nine exhilarating programs explores incidents not covered in textbooks or lecture halls, the ones that add excitement, meaning, and nuance to history. Once you've watched this fascinating set, the Civil War will never look the same.

- Nine riveting documentaries on 4 DVDs chronicle the fascinating, little-known aspects of the War Between the States.
- A multifaceted look at the Civil War, including its naval history, weapons analysis, and daring covert operations.
- SECRETS OF THE CIVIL WAR uses stunt-filled reenactments, archival letters, original diary entries, and interviews with renowned historians to bring the secrets of the Civil War to life.
