With over ten four-star reviews from the nation's top critics, including The New York Times and Roger Ebert, the theatrical phenomenon RIVERS AND TIDES depicts the magical relationship between art and nature while painting a visually intoxicating portrait of famed artist Andy Goldsworthy.

- An acclaimed British artist who collaborates with nature to make his creations, Andy Goldsworthy has created his work all over the world.
- Winner of the Golden Gate Award Grand Prize for Best Documentary at the 2003 San Francisco International Film Festival.
- With a theatrical box office gross of over $2.2 million and play dates in well over 200 cities, RIVERS AND TIDES is one of the most successful theatrical documentaries in recent years.
- With galleries in New York and San Francisco, Andy Goldsworthy has a devoted fan base that purchases both prints of his artwork and his best-selling coffee table books (published by Abrams).
- The film has won tremendous critical praise across the board for its mesmerizing and extraordinary beauty. Granted a four-star review from, among others, The New York Times, The Los Angeles Times, Roger Ebert, and The San Francisco Chronicle.
- Among Andy Goldsworthy's best-selling books are the critically acclaimed Stone, Wood, Arch, Wall, Hand to Earth, Andy Goldsworthy: A Collaboration with Nature, and most recently, Passages.
