Praised as "rare and powerful" by The New York Times, Ursula K. Le Guin's THE LATHE OF HEAVEN is one of the most celebrated science fiction novels ever written.

George Orr is haunted by dreams that become reality. In a world of destruction and uncertainty, a psychiatrist sees Orr's power as a way for humanity to escape its bleak fate. But as each attempt to direct Orr's dreams end in failure, the doctor's obsession with playing God grows out of control. Bruce Davison (X-Men, Six Degrees of Separation, Crimes of Passion) stars in this chilling fable of power uncontrolled and uncontrollable.

Now, for the first time on DVD and home video, see the futuristic sci-fi movie that critics and audiences alike were astonished by twenty years ago and have been clamoring for ever since. This innovative adaptation brings the towering vision of Le Guin's masterpiece to life.
