Cleveland Indians® Vintage World Series® Films: 1948

The Cleveland Indians glorious 1948 World Series championship victory is digitally preserved on this official DVD.

The “Golden Age” of Cleveland baseball is celebrated in this collectible DVD featuring one of the most star-studded pitching staffs in Major League Baseball® history. Under player-manager and 1948 American League® MVP Lou Boudreau, the 1948 Cleveland Indians had superb hitting, but it was the pitching that led the way. After defeating the Boston Red Sox® in a one-game playoff to decide the pennant, the Indians took on the Boston Braves™. Over the first four games Cleveland’s pitching registered a 0.75 ERA, and sparked by the hitting of Larry Doby, the Indians won their first World Series championship since 1920.

Eye-catching packaging and team-specific content is assembled together to make the CLEVELAND INDIANS® VINTAGE WORLD SERIES® FILMS: 1948 a must-have piece of baseball memorabilia that fans won’t want to miss.
