

THE PITTSBURGH PIRATES® 1979 WORLD SERIES® COLLECTOR'S EDITION

A Team That Became a Family. A Family That Became Champions.

A&E Home Video and Major League Baseball Productions proudly present this ultimate piece of baseball memorabilia showcasing the 1979 Fall Classic® and the Pirates relentless battle to fight off elimination from the Baltimore Orioles® in seven action-packed DVDs.

Released in advance of the 2006 MLB™ All-Star Game® in Pittsburgh, this fan-favorite souvenir will be a sought after piece of Pirates history. The collection includes the actual game broadcasts of the full World Series—not seen in more than 25 years. All seven pristine, digitally-enhanced game broadcasts will thrill Pirates fans of all ages.

- More than 15 hours of digitally enhanced authentic game action.
- Original, full, complete game broadcasts—available for the first time.
- Fan-pleasing SleeveStats™—each game's package is enhanced with deep and dynamic official stats that provide trivia, game summaries, and player information to deepen fan enjoyment.
- Marketing partnerships with MLB™ and the Pittsburgh Pirates® will promote the box set at the All-Star Game, PNC Park™, and across the team's media assets.
- National and regional press outreach to consumer sports print and electronic media outlets and sports trade journals.
- Print and web-based advertising in local newspapers and MLB.com.
