Death On The Nile

"Agatha Christie's brilliant detective, peerlessly portrayed by Britain's David Suchet... is one of the great literary figures of the genre."

—TV Guide

When Linnet Doyle, the richest woman in London, steals and marries her best friend's fiancé, the best friend gets her revenge by hounding the newlyweds throughout their honeymoon. A subsequent pleasure cruise down the river Nile turns deadly when the widely despised Mrs. Doyle is found murdered in bed. Thank goodness the famed Belgian detective Hercule Poirot is along for the ride. His services are sorely in need as the body count—and the number of suspects—quickly rises.

Maintaining the high production standards fans of the Poirot series have come to expect, Tony Award® nominee David Suchet returns to his celebrated role as Hercule Poirot in a lavish A&E adaptation of the Agatha Christie classic—DEATH ON THE NILE.

- A brand new feature-length adaptation of the Agatha Christie classic—one of the most popular mystery series in television history.
- Tony Award® nominee David Suchet returns as the definitive Poirot.
- Co-starring James Fox (Sexy Beast, The Remains of the Day) and David Soul (Starsky & Hutch).
- A lavish multi-million dollar production, shot on location in Egypt.
- Death on the Nile was also a popular 1978 feature film starring Peter Ustinov and Mia Farrow.
- Poirot mysteries are a worldwide sensation seen in over 80 countries.
