INHERITANCE

A NAZI LEGACY. AND THE JOURNEY TO CHANGE IT.

[captures what]
no amount of narrative or analysis could ever hope to.”

— The Los Angeles Times

One of the most astonishing and deeply personal films about the Holocaust ever told

Monika Hertwig's father was prominent Nazi Amon Goeth. Often described as a "monster," Goeth murdered thousands during the war, and was portrayed by Ralph Fiennes in the film Schindler's List. Feeling an aching need to come to terms with this legacy of hatred, Monika reaches out to Helen Jonas, who lived enslaved under Goeth's roof, serving as both his servant and prey for nearly two years.

Sixty years after Goeth's execution, Monika and Helen meet for the first time. It's a brutally honest and emotional journey that brings both closure and new questions.

- Timed to release with the television broadcast premiere on the PBS series P.O.V. in December 2008, the story was profiled on Oprah in March 2008.
- From long-time Steven Spielberg associate and Academy Award®-winning filmmaker James Moll (The Last Days).
- Winner of the Brizzolara Family Award for Films of Conflict and Resolution at the Hamptons International Film Festival.
