Cincinnati Reds® Vintage World Series® Films: 1975, 1976, 1990

All the glory and classic moments of three Cincinnati Reds World Series championships are now digitally preserved on this official DVD.

The 1975 Fall Classic® matched the Reds against the Boston Red Sox® in a seven-act performance that enthralled the nation. After an extra-innings defeat in Game 6 the night before, the team battled back from 3-0 to win the game and the series. In an awesome display of professionalism and dominance, the Reds swept the New York Yankees® in the 1976 World Series, and fourteen years later, the Reds again swept their opponent, the defending champions, the Oakland Athletics®.

- The 1975 Fall Classic® is treasured as one of the most exciting and dramatic World Series ever, featuring five one-run games and five come-from-behind victories.
- Stacked with MVP players, including Johnny Bench, Pete Rose, Joe Morgan, George Foster and Barry Larkin.
- Cincinnati became the first National League® team to win back-to-back series in over 50 years.
- The 1990 Reds became the only NL team to occupy first place for the entire duration of the regular season.
