

Taking On THE KENNEDYS

A Film by Joshua Seftel

One Man's Race Against a Political Dynasty

A thrillingly provocative, modern-day David vs. Goliath battle set in the amphitheater of American politics, P.O.V. presents TAKING ON THE KENNEDYS, an acerbic, witty, and revealing look at the controversial 1994 Congressional race, where a Rhode Island Republican with no experience in public office challenged Democratic favorite son Patrick Kennedy... and nearly won. With unrestricted access to the candidates and their campaigns, filmmaker Joshua Seftel exposes a hard-hitting deconstruction of political campaigns and powerful dynasties.

- As seen on PBS's highly acclaimed P.O.V. series, America's most-watched independent documentary showcase.
- The Kennedy name is one of the most recognizable in America; the family's notorious political dynasty is of consistent interest to consumers.
- Featuring appearances by Caroline Kennedy Schlosberg, Edward Kennedy, John F. Kennedy Jr., and other powerhouse political figures.
