

THE HISTORY CHANNEL®

THE VIETNAM WAR

THE HISTORY CHANNEL® commemorates the 40th anniversary of key Vietnam War events

Four decades after the Tet Offensive and the beginning of the Paris Peace Accords, THE HISTORY CHANNEL® presents its first Vietnam War DVD set. Timed to release as ongoing political coverage compares the current situation in Iraq to the Vietnam War, this extensive 2-disc collection profiles the decision makers and chronicles key events, from the advisors' arrival in 1959 to the airlift from the roof of the American Embassy in 1975.

Archival footage and interviews with historians and veterans reveal the military and political strategies in play, and rare footage from the CBS News archives takes viewers to the frontlines to witness the daily struggles of American servicemen and women.

- Timed to release with the 40th anniversary of the Tet Offensive and the start of the Paris Peace Talks.
- This comprehensive collection from THE HISTORY CHANNEL® is packed with over five hours of content, revealing military and political strategies from the first moments of the Vietnam War through the eventual U.S. withdrawal and beyond.
- The Vietnam War has been referenced in political coverage of the 2008 presidential race and compared to the Iraq War in recent news commentary.
