BOB DYLAN: DONT LOOK BACK

Introducing The 65 Tour Deluxe Edition

BOB DYLAN: DONT LOOK BACK—65 TOUR DELUXE EDITION is the ultimate look at Bob Dylan's concert tour of England in the spring of 1965—one of the most intimate profiles of an artist ever put to film. This definitive set includes the remastered classic film by D.A. Pennebaker, a brand-new, hour-long look at Dylan, and the original 1968 companion book to the film, all housed in an eye-catching, collectible package. More than just a concert film, DONT LOOK BACK is a window into the spirit of the 60s, and one of the poet-musicians whose words and songs defined it.

DISC 1 BOB DYLAN DONT LOOK BACK:

A new digital master created especially for this edition reveals the classic film in a pristine crispness unseen for decades. This extras-packed disc also includes an extraordinary commentary track with Pennebaker and Dylan's former tour road manager Bob Neuwirth.

DONT LOOK BACK BOOK:

This 168-page reproduction of the 1968 edition features a complete transcription of the film, over 200 photos, and a new forward by D.A. Pennebaker.

SUBTERRANEAN HOME SICK BLUES FLIP BOOK:

Provides a frame-by-frame look at the film's famed "cue-card" sequence, considered by many to be the first music video of the modern era.

DISC 2 BOB DYLAN 65 REVISITED:

D.A. Pennebaker created this new work from his personal archive of over 20,000 feet of never-before-seen footage, providing a new and different perspective of the young Dylan.
