Race back to the future with the Super-Marionated heroes of the THUNDERBIRDS—Gerry Anderson's (Space: 1999 Supercar, Stingray, Fireball XL-5) cult-classic '60s show. In the year 2065, the Tracy family—dad Jeff and his five sons—monitors the world from their secret base in the Pacific, always on the lookout for trouble. When they find it, they scramble to their incredible array of Thunderbirds machines and race to the rescue.

These eagerly-anticipated DVD collector's sets complete A&E Home Video's definitive release of the cult-classic series. A host of bonus features and programs including the rarely-seen 1965 "Making of" documentary and a newly filmed introduction to the series—in addition to the final eight episodes—make these sets must-have additions to the collection of any THUNDERBIRDS fan.
