SYNOPSIS After suffering tragedy of her own, Michael (Catherine Bell), a female 911 operator returns to work. When she receives a mysterious call which seems to correlate with her own nightmares, she begins to believe that a restless dead girl is seeking her help. She begins having visions which lead her to the town of Starlight, Pennsylvania, where she uncovers the story of a girl who went missing years before. The girl was written off as a drowning victim, but Michael believes she was kidnapped. Despite concerns for her own health and sanity, she presses on in her investigation.
