

SYNOPSIS In the early 1800's, Los Angeles was a dusty pueblo, the farthest colonial outpost of the Spanish empire. This wild and untamed land was governed by the pueblo's mayor, the ALCALDE, a corrupt dictator whose word is law and whose law is absolute. Only one man is courageous enough to take a stand against the injustices of the cruel Alcalde: a masked rider named ZORRO. With his trademark whip and sword, he is everywhere and nowhere, quick to defend the innocent and attack the guilty. And always he leaves his trademark symbol, a 'Z,' the mark of Zorro. This DVD megaset collects all 88 episodes from the classic '90s TV Series that brought the legend of Zorro to life for a whole new generation of fans.
