CONNECTED

Have you ever faked a restroom trip to check your email? Slept with your laptop? Become so overwhelmed that you just unplugged from it all? In her feature directorial debut, CONNECTED, internet pioneer and Webby Award founder Tiffany Shlain's love-hate relationship with technology serves as the springboard for a thrilling exploration of modern life and our interconnected future. Blending a healthy dose of humor and irony with an imaginative combination of animation and archival footage, the film is equal parts documentary and memoir. Narrated by Peter Coyote, CONNECTED is a chronological tour of Western modernization inspired by the work of Tiffany's father, Leonard Shlain, a surgeon and best-selling author of Art and Physics and The Alphabet Versus the Goddess, interwoven with a deeply personal story about a year in the Shlain's life in which technology and science literally become a matter of life and death.

Bonus Features

- Two Bonus Short Films: A Declaration of Interdependence and Yelp Apologies to Allen Ginsberg's Howl
