

Oh! Calcutta!

The Most Controversial Musical Show in Broadway History!

There's nothing quite like OH! CALCUTTA!, an elegant adult musical deliciously performed (mostly) in the nude. Debuting in 1970 and running for a record 20 years, OH! CALCUTTA! playfully challenges taboos by representing the sexual revolution in a series of uproarious skits, dance, and musical numbers written by naughty luminaries including John Lennon and Samuel Beckett.

From an elaborately concocted scene in which a crafty virgin gets the upper hand on her seducer to a hilarious rendition of awkward first-time swingers, OH! CALCUTTA! gleefully runs roughshod over prudish no-no's.

OH! CALCUTTA!, directed by British theater critic Kenneth Tynan, is equal parts hubris and hilarity, putting on stage what usually never leaves the bedroom to sidesplitting and blush-worthy effect.

- The definitive version of the world famous erotic stage musical.
- A smash hit on Broadway that ran for 20 years with over 6,000 performances.
- Featuring skits written by Samuel Beckett, John Lennon, Sam Shepard and Jules Feiffer, among others.

"A notable cultural artifact, returning one to a period of sexual freedom and experimentation."
