

The Last Days of the CIVIL WAR

ON DVD

THE STORY OF THE WAR THAT TORE AMERICA APART... AND SAVED THE NATION

Only THE HISTORY CHANNEL® could present THE LAST DAYS OF THE CIVIL WAR, a unique collection profiling the forces, events, and personalities that not only brought the epic conflict to a close, but also shaped the nation that emerged from the ashes of Secession.

April 1865: The Month That Saved America—Jay Winik hosts this adaptation of his bestselling book tracing the thirty tumultuous days that determined America's fate.

Civil War Journal: Tragedy at Cold Harbor—A battle that opened with 7,000 deaths in twenty minutes and lasted ten months.

BIOGRAPHY®: Abraham Lincoln—Dispels the myths surrounding the stoic president who risked everything to save his nation.

Civil War Journal: Jefferson Davis—The only Confederate president was the consummate Washington insider before the war.

BIOGRAPHY®: Robert E. Lee—He achieved extraordinary victories in service of a cause that divided his nation and heart.
