

The true story of CHE GUEVARA

The life and death of the 20th century's most iconic rebel

In collaboration with Jon Lee Anderson, author of the best-selling biography Che, this unique and timely documentary from THE HISTORY CHANNEL® brings to life the story of Che Guevara. Che's tumultuous life has long been a subject of fascination, and is currently the subject of two upcoming back-to-back theatrical biopics from director Steven Soderbergh.

Cloaked in mystery and obscured by legend, Che's almost mystical charisma and his dedication to worldwide revolution terrified some of the world's most powerful men—and led to armies vying to destroy him. Interviews with Che's wives, children, and comrades, as well as with the CIA agents and Bolivian officers who hunted him down, shed light on everything from his privileged childhood in Argentina to his strange and lonely execution.

- An enduring icon in the zeitgeist, Che is also the topic of upcoming back-to-back Steven Soderbergh films starring Benicio Del Toro.
- Created in collaboration with Jon Lee Anderson, author of the best-selling biography Che.
- The life of Che Guevara is intimately revealed through interviews with his family, supporters, and enemies.
- This special presentation aired on THE HISTORY CHANNEL® on December 28, 2006.
