

Language: English
Color/ B&W: Color
Widescreen: Yes
SRP: US $24.95
Audio Format: Stereo
Length: 105 m
Units per Carton: 30
Year: 2009
Genre: Comedy
Format: Single
Packaging: Amaray
Cat: NNVG231550
UPC: 7-67685-23155-5
ISBN: 1-4229-9523-2

Director: David Russo
Writer: David Russo

Cast: Natasha Lyonne (American Pie),
Marshall Allman (True Blood), and Tania
Raymonde (Lost)

The Immaculate Conception of Little Dizzle

“Clerks re-imagined by William S. Burroughs.”
—The New York Times

Synopsis:

After he loses his high-paying job, Dory takes a gig as a night janitor in order to pay rent. Alone late at night inside a market research firm, he soon discovers the company is experimenting on their other janitors.

Trailer > <http://www.littledizzlefilm.com/Trailer.html>

- Starring Marshall Allman (True Blood), Natasha Lyonne (Blade: Trinity), Tania Raymonde (Lost) and up-and-comer Tygh Runyan (Stargate University).
- Official Selection at 2009 SXSW Film Festival, 2009 Berlin Film Festival and 2009 Sundance Film Festival.
- Set in Seattle and capturing the zeitgeist of today's twenty-somethings, this oddball, fantastic comedy pays homage to films such as Clerks, Slacker, and Kicking and Screaming.
- Social media outreach to fans of Lost and True Blood and college students, particularly those in art school.
- Online media campaign (23MM impressions) to support DVD release.

Reviews:

“Hilarious and bizarre, Little Dizzle surprises with its deeply felt affirmation of the miraculous.” — San Francisco International Film Festival

“A bizarre experiment that yields unexpected consequences in this innovative, character-driven comedy punctuated by imaginative animation.” — The New York Times