

JFK

A PRESIDENCY REVEALED

ON DVD

Forty years after his death, John F. Kennedy's life, assassination and legacy continue to captivate the nation. But countless questions remain unanswered.

From secret liaisons to the details of cabinet deliberations during the Cuban Missile Crisis, JFK: A PRESIDENCY REVEALED writes new chapters in the story of America's 35th president. Peabody Award®-winning producer David Taylor (The Johnson Tapes) draws on an unprecedented wealth of never-before-released material—including JFK's White House audio tapes, Soviet footage from Kennedy's sole superpower summit, and declassified medical documents—to explore every aspect of the man, his administration, and his continued influence.

Former CNN White House Correspondent Frank Sesno hosts this exhaustive and revelatory look at one of America's most beloved and controversial figures.
