Celebrate the Final Year of Shea with this 6 DVD Set featuring the most Essential Games of this historic field

As the home for the New York Mets since 1964, Shea Stadium has hosted an amazing array of history making ballgames, all-time players, colorful managers, and millions of passionate fans. From the high-flying championship teams to the low-flying planes, the sounds of Shea Stadium are ingrained in the hearts of the enthusiastic crowds who cheer for their Mets.

Released just in time for Father's Day, this six-game, six-DVD collection spans five decades of promise, amusement, and jubilation. It celebrates the legendary games and the baseball heroes who chiseled these unforgettable moments into baseball-lore and made Mets history.

- Packaged in the new SteelBook™ sleek, shiny metal casing, this set is the ultimate collector's souvenir.
- Six of the Club's most memorable games at Shea Stadium—full broadcasts ranging from 1969 – 2006.
- Featuring legendary moments in Mets history, including Tom Seaver's 10-inning win in the '69 World Series®, Robin Ventura's "grand slam single" in Game 5 of the 1999 NLCS™, and the legendary 1986 World Series Game 6 win against the Boston Red Sox®.
- Marketing in partnership with the team will coincide with the final season of Shea Stadium.
- Bonus content includes highlights, uncut interviews, and rare game footage.
