

*Art is not final

Language: English
Color/ B&W: Color
Widescreen: TK
Units per Carton: 30
Genre: Crime Drama
Packaging: Amaray in O-card

SRP: US $26.95
Audio Format: TK
Length: 90 min.
Year: 2011
Format: Single

Cat: NNVG265111
UPC: 7-67685-26511-6
ISBN: 1-4229-3585-X

Director: Mary McGuckian (The Bridge of San Luis Rey, Inconceivable)

Cast: Donald Sutherland (Pride and Prejudice, Ordinary People), Larry Mullen Jr., and Paula Boudreau (Mr. Magorium's Wonder Emporium)

The Man on the Train

A riveting crime drama starring
Donald Sutherland and Larry Mullen, Jr.

Synopsis A “superb” (Hollywood Reporter) remake of the original French film by Patrick Leconte, this literate, slow-burn drama focuses on a transformative friendship that emerges between a sheltered professor (Donald Sutherland) and a laconic career criminal (Larry Mullen, Jr.).

Trailer > http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vxDnqICw_xY

- Stars Donald Sutherland (Pride and Prejudice, Ordinary People) and Paula Boudreau (Mr. Magorium's Wonder Emporium)
- The acclaimed acting debut of musician Larry Mullen Jr.
- Based on an acclaimed, successful original French film:
 - Won audience awards at the Venice Film Festival for Best Film and Best Actor (Jean Rochefort)
 - Limited US theatrical release via Paramount Pictures in 2003; released on 85 screens and grossed $2.5MM US
- Original score by Larry Mullen, Jr. (companion album available on iTunes)
- Promotion, PR and social media to target indie/foreign film fans, U2 fans

Reviews:

“A superb remake of Patrick Leconte’s 2002 film, Man on the Train is a scrumptiously literate character drama...a ripe illumination, buoyed by the sterling lead performances of Sutherland and Mullen” – Hollywood Reporter