

THE COLOR OF WAR

World War II as it's never been seen before—in full color with rare archival footage

An award-winning documentary filled with never-before-seen, all-color images, THE COLOR OF WAR is a spectacle of color, sights, sounds, and memories.

A striking assemblage of color footage and photographs taken from national archives and private collections, THE COLOR OF WAR presents striking perspectives on the day-to-day from every imaginable angle. From the first draftees thrown into the breach to the uniforms worn and the objects carried, this unparalleled collection of voices is further illuminated by letters and diaries, communiqués from the battlefield, and the sounds and songs of the era.

- 17 original programs on five discs with thousands of color-only images provide an intimate and personal look at WWII through the eyes of those who lived it.
- A rare WWII DVD release available in ALL color.
- Winner of a CINE Special Jury Award for Best Broadcast History Program.
- Narrated by Peter Coyote (Erin Brockovich, E.T.).
