Join in the adventure of the first 100 days of school with these tales about learning and making friends

The
New York Times
bestseller
now on DVD

- Rosemary Wells' career as an author and illustrator spans more than 30 years and 60 books featuring such unforgettable characters as Max and Ruby, and Yoko, for which she has won numerous awards.
- As the school year begins, kids can watch and read along with this faithful adaptation of The New York Times best-seller as Emily and her classmates count down the first 100 days of school.
- Includes two additional stories about the challenges of school, Reading to Your Bunny and Will I Have a Friend?, as well as an interview with Rosemary Wells and an original song by Mary Chapin Carpenter.
- The Scholastic Video Collection features creative and faithful adaptations of classic, award-winning children's books from distinguished authors.
