

"Smart, timely documentary about the GI movement."

—The New York Times

A behind the scenes look at the anti-war efforts of former military men and women

Easily one of the most powerful cinematic works about soldiers on the front lines of antiwar resistance, the award-winning theatrical hit SIR! NO SIR! unfolds the stunning but suppressed story of the military men and women who helped force the U.S.

government to end the Vietnam War. Contrary to the popular image of long-haired hippies spitting on returning soldiers, SIR! NO SIR! vividly demonstrates that GIs were the heart and soul of the anti-war movement.

Poignantly narrated by a diverse cast of veteran GI resisters who recall the ferocious days of peace marches and stiff jail sentences, SIR! NO SIR!, directed by David Zeiger, pulls no punches in its raw depiction of the power of people, especially those in uniform.

- Spirit Award Nominee for Best Feature Documentary.
- April 2006 nationwide theatrical release: over 90 theaters in USA & Canada.
- Raves across the board including The New York Times, San Francisco Chronicle, and The Washington Post.
- Perfectly timed to address the controversy surrounding the Iraq War.
