A Sound Journey with Evelyn Glennie

"A mystical exploration of the sensory world as experienced by a renowned musician" (San Jose Mercury News), TOUCH THE SOUND delightfully shatters the way we think about sound. Gracefully guided by Grammy®-winning percussionist Evelyn Glennie, who also happens to be deaf, this groundbreaking film opens the door to a world where sight, sound, and touch magically converge to elevate our everyday sensory experiences.

From an improvisation with chopsticks and cans in a Japanese restaurant to a stunning recording session at a warehouse in Germany, award-winning filmmaker Thomas Riedelsheimer (Rivers and Tides) captures this globe-trotting phenomenon in all her splendor.

- Featuring Grammy® Award-winning musician Evelyn Glennie, one of the world's leading percussionists.
- 2005 nationwide theatrical release.
- One of the best reviewed films of 2005 with enthusiastic, four-star raves from the Los Angeles Times, The New York Times, and the Chicago Tribune, among others.
- "Certified Fresh" seal of approval from rottentomatoes.com, the web's largest and most heavily trafficked film review site.
- From acclaimed director Thomas Riedelsheimer (Rivers and Tides)
- Shot in stunning 16:9 widescreen cinematography.
- Includes crisp 5.1 Dolby Digital and DTS surround formats.
