ROMEO & JULIET

Shakespeare's ageless tale of family feuds, star-crossed lovers and tragic, untimely death is vividly captured in this memorable production of ROMEO & JULIET.

In the gentle streets of fair Verona, a clash of servants between the warring Montagues and Capulets sets the wheels of fate in motion. At a masked ball, the lovelorn Romeo spies the beautiful Juliet and the two soon fall madly in love, only to feel despair once their true identities are revealed. Matters worsen when Romeo slays Tybalt, a nephew of the Capulets, and is banished from the city. Only the intervention of a loyal friar and nurse can right the course of true love, but a rush judgement spells the end to their earthly union.
