THE EMMY® AND PEABODY® WINNING CLASSIC ON DVD FOR THE FIRST TIME EVER

Arguably the most influential documentary in television history, VICTORY AT SEA, in the words of Harper's Weekly, "created a new art form." The 26 half-hour episodes were culled from over 13,000 hours of footage shot by the U.S., British, German, and Japanese navies during World War II. Narrated by Leonard Graves and set to a score by Oscar® winner, Richard Rodgers, the program was an immediate sensation when first broadcast in 1952.

Now the complete, landmark series is available on DVD for the first time, digitally restored and remastered. From Nazi "Wolfpacks" to the battle of Okinawa, every major naval engagement of World War II is captured in some of the most riveting combat footage ever shot.
