

THE FOUNDING of AMERICA

Starring
KELSEY GRAMMAR,
AIDAN QUINN,
and
JEFF DANIELS

An in-depth look at the birth of a nation

The inspiring early days of America—the personalities, the battles, the bravery, the losses, and even the romance—spring to life in spellbinding detail in this sweeping 14-DVD set from A&E Home Video.

Founding Fathers and Founding Brothers examine the relationships of the very human men who risked their fortunes and lives for independence. HISTORY™ Presents: The American Revolution recounts great battles, devastating losses, and miraculous victories. Ben Franklin and Benedict Arnold: A Question of Honor look at the critical roles played by both men—one a hero, the other a traitor—while Washington the Warrior and The Crossing pay tribute to the soul-stirring leadership of our first president. And the revolution's most enduring romance unfolds in BIOGRAPHY®: John and Abigail Adams: Love and Liberty.

With performances by Kelsey Grammar, Aidan Quinn, and Jeff Daniels, rare archival material, and commentary by leading historians, THE FOUNDING OF AMERICA presents historical programming at its comprehensive best.

- Includes documentaries based on the Pulitzer Prize-winning book The Founding of America.
- This 14-disc set has over 27 hours of material and includes reenactments, rare archival material, and commentary by leading historians bring the most legendary politicians vividly to life in this complete megaset.
- Renewed genre popularity and consumer demand exists after the recent success of HBO's top-rated John Adams miniseries.
