THE SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS: 2010 WORLD SERIES® COLLECTOR'S EDITION

Every inning, play, and heart-stopping moment of the 2010 World Series

- Giants win their first World Series since moving from New York to San Francisco in 1958.
- Giants are led by a core of young, dynamic, popular stars including 23-year old catcher Buster Posey, and 26-year old pitcher Tim Lincecum who notched two World Series victories.
- The ultimate baseball collectible, this 8-disc set features all of the complete World Series Games versus the Rangers, as well as NLCS Game 6 versus the Phillies, and a special bonus disc.
- Giants are the first time pitching staff in 44 years to toss two shutouts (1966, Baltimore Orioles.) and MVP Edgar Renteria is the first Non-Yankee to have two World Series winning hits (1997 and 2010) joining Yogi Berra, Joe DiMaggio, and Lou Gehrig.
- SF home television territory includes Northern half of CA, Nevada, Hawaii and Southern Oregon.
- Features never-before-seen celebratory footage and exclusive interviews on a special bonus disc; The FOX en Espanol broadcast; and radio broadcasts from the SF's flagship station for all games.
- Multimedia campaign to include partnership with the MLB Network, on-line, print, outdoor and radio advertising in the team's local market and affiliated markets targeting men's lifestyle and sports pubs, blog infiltration, and on-air giveaways and promotion during series.
