POOR LITTLE RICH GIRL

The Barbara Hutton Story

Farrah Fawcett stars in the dramatic tale of one woman's search for love

Gorgeous, lonely, and rich beyond imagining, Barbara Hutton inherited the vast Woolworth fortune when she was only a child. POOR LITTLE RICH GIRL is a sweeping historical epic that follows the heiress around the world, from New York to London to Tangiers, in her desperate and tragic search for love. Hutton was married seven times, to princes, a baron, a count, and an American movie star. Each of her marriages and divorces took place in the public eye, only adding to Hutton's loneliness and despair. Farrah Fawcett turns in one of the greatest performances of her career in this stirring six-part miniseries, which won three Emmy® Awards and a Golden Globe®.

- Starring award-winning actress Farrah Fawcett (Charlie's Angels), Oscar®-winner Burl Ives (The Big Country), and James Read (Remington Steel).
- This dramatic 5 hour TV miniseries won three Emmy® Awards and a Golden Globe®.
- The true-life saga of the original multi-million dollar baby is available on DVD for the first time.
