

SOUTHERN COMFORT

Robert was born female.
Lola was born male.
Now, they are falling in love...
but time is running out.

Rarely has a film garnered such high levels of critical praise as SOUTHERN COMFORT, a breakout hit and winner at nearly 20 major film festivals around the world including the Grand Jury Prize at Sundance. With its rare blend of humor, tragedy, and romance, SOUTHERN COMFORT tells the remarkable story of Robert Eads, a 52-year-old wise-cracking cowboy who was born female. The film finds Robert fifteen years later, during the extraordinary last year of his life, as he falls headlong into a passionate romance with Lola, a vivacious and magnetic woman who was born male.

- One of the most astonishing and moving films of 2001.
- Winner and audience favorite at over 15 major Film Festivals including the Grand Jury Prize at Sundance in 2001.
- A film with tremendous critical acclaim across the board.
- From award-winning filmmaker Kate Davis.
- As seen on HBO.
