A love letter to an amazing era in film, A DECADE UNDER THE INFLUENCE enlists a cast of pioneering writers, directors, and actors to talk about the times, their films and their colleagues. A virtual cinematic scrapbook of the decade, filmmakers Richard LaGravenese (The Fisher King) and the late Ted Demme (Blow) include a cornucopia of clips from such classics as Easy Rider, The Godfather, and Coming Home. The result is a fantastic celebration of the artists and films that left a vital and lasting stamp on America's national cinema and identity.

- A DECADE UNDER THE INFLUENCE will air as part of a three-part television series on IFC August 20, 21, and 22, 2003.
- Featuring interviews with a cast of film greats, including Robert Altman, Martin Scorsese, Peter Bogdanovich, Dennis Hopper, Ellen Burstyn, William Friedkin, Jon Voight, and Julie Christie.
- Television broadcast will be supported by a national advertising campaign.
   Media presence during the month of August to include: Full Page Color
   Ads in Entertainment Weekly, Premiere, NY Times Magazine, Time Out
   New York, US Weekly, Newsday, Weekly Variety; 15 & 30 second radio spots; Outdoor national marketing campaign.
- A standout at Sundance, A DECADE UNDER THE INFLUENCE had a limited theatrical run in 2003 playing to great critical acclaim in New York, Philadelphia, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Chicago, and Boston.
